SureTec Names Michael Keimig Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer

Houston, November 17, 2014 – SureTec is very pleased to announce that Michael C. Keimig has been named to fill the newly created position of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer (COO) of SureTec. Keimig comes to SureTec with over two decades of progressive experience in underwriting and management with two of the most respected sureties in the world. He will join SureTec on December 1, 2014 and report directly to John Knox, Jr., SureTec’s Chairman & CEO.

“As we continue to expand our Mid-Market contract bond business, Mike could not be joining SureTec at a better time. He has excellent management and people skills and a proven track record of success in growing a larger limit contract bond operation,” said Knox, adding, “Mike has a great reputation. He is a leader who will be involved in, and contributing to, every aspect of our diverse and growing business. We are very excited to have Mike join us.”

Keimig stated, “I’m very excited to bring my talents and relationships to an already strong leadership team at SureTec. I look forward to playing a significant role in the continued growth of the SureTec brand and positioning the company for the future. SureTec has a great underwriting culture that will provide the foundation for further expansion. My goal over the next 15 – 20 years is to make SureTec the industry leader in each market niche we serve.”

Keimig, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary’s College with degrees in Business & Finance, and Economics, started his surety career with Seaboard Surety. He joined Chubb Surety in 1997 and most recently has served as Vice President and Regional Manager, operating out of its Houston Office.
