

SureTec Names Larry Mastalski Vice President, Houston Branch Manager

HOUSTON, TEXAS (April 7, 2015) SureTec Insurance Company announced today that Larry Mastalski has been named Vice President and Houston Contract Branch Manager. Mastalski comes to SureTec with 24 years of underwriting experience, strong agency relationships and knowledge of a territory that extends from Texas through the Southeast.

"Larry's knowledge of the surety industry, strength as an underwriter and his innate leadership style will add to the exceptional underwriting team already in place," said Mike Keimig, SureTec Chief Operating Officer.

Larry started his career with Seaboard Surety Company in 1991 and served stints in Seaboard's Home Office and Charlotte office. He joined Chubb Surety in 1996 and spent time in Charlotte and Atlanta before moving to Houston in 2006.

"We're excited about Larry coming aboard in Houston," said Bob Cave, Chief Underwriting Officer, adding, "the agency relationships he has cultivated will complement our existing book and further enhance SureTec's opportunities as we continue expanding into new market segments."
